Dear Ed:

I would like to use this occasion to commend the performance Kate Davis gave us on Saturday night, 7 December.

She came on bubbling with enthusiasm, which was soon infectious, and in no time had us all giggling and laughing. Her subject matter fit in perfectly with the age and diversity of our group. Moreover, her repartee and come-backs with one or two of our tipsy members were delightful. I would call her spontaneous, clever and a down-to-earth talent. I see her as typical of the quality comedians Canada seems to export to the US on a regular basis.

On behalf of our group, thanks for helping us out of our bind, Ed, and more so for suggesting such a fine entertainer as Kate.

Regards, and have a prosperous 2003.
