Dear Mr. Adelman:

I am pleased to take this opportunity to put in writing a few words of thanks and appreciation for the humour Kate Davis provided the guests attending an event held by Woman magazine at the end of October this year.

The event celebrated the fourth anniversary of Woman and was also a fundraiser for The Shirley A. Brown Memorial Chair in Women's Mental Health Research. Kate's stand-up routine was especially appropriate for this group which was largely female; her jokes about motherhood, children and the ever-beyond-our-reach perfect life balance women are always striving to achieve were just great. The tone of the evening had been somewhat serious, with talk of women's issues and journalism. My decision to bring a light-hearted element to the evening proved a successful one. Kate strategically built her routine, performing vignettes that built upon the hilarity of each one. On many occasions she had the whole room in stitches.

I would not hesitate to invite Kate to perform again for Woman magazine in the future. She is at once personable, fun, sincere and kind, but also shocking, bold and engagingly authentic in her delivery.

I wish Kate all the best in her stand-up future which I suspect will lead her to some great opportunities and wonderful experiences. If I can be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours truly
